

BRITISH DIVISION OF THE INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY OF PATHOLOGY

SYMPOSIUM ON BREAST PATHOLOGY

24-25th November 2017, Royal Institute of British Architects, London

Friday 24th November 2017

- 09.25 Welcome:
- Chairperson Jeremy Thomas
- 09.30-10.00 Digital Pathology – Use in breast pathology reporting – David Snead (Coventry) (david.snead@uhcw.nhs.uk)
- 10.00-10.30 Proliferative breast lesions: hyperplasia, FEA, ADH, and LN (including PLCIS) – Abeer Shaaban (Birmingham) (Abeer.Shaaban@uhb.nhs.uk)
- 10.30-11.00 Papillary lesions – Caterina Marchio (University of Turin – Italy) (caterina.marchio@unito.it)
- 11.00-11.30 Coffee
- 10.30-11.00 Diagnosis of rare breast tumours (including uncommon special types, salivary gland and skin appendage tumours) – Ian Ellis (Nottingham)(Ian.Ellis@nottingham.ac.uk)
- 12.00-12.30 Approach to complex breast excisions and margins - including multifocal lesions, post-neoadjuvant excisions, oncoplastic specimens and reconstructions – Elena Provenzano (Cambridge) (elena.provenzano@addenbrookes.nhs.uk)
- 12.30-13.00 Axillary lymph nodes, handling and reporting post-Z11 and TNM8; when is a micrometastasis not a micrometastasis? – Colin Purdie (Dundee) (colin.purdie@nhs.net)
- 13.00-13.15 BDIAP Annual General Meeting
- 13.15-14.00 Lunch
- Chairperson Sarah Pinder
- 14.00-14.30 Tumour infiltrating lymphocytes – clinical significance and histological reporting – Sunil Badve, Chicago, USA (sbadve@iupui.edu)
- 14.30-15.00 Update on the use of molecular assays in breast cancer in the UK and the 100k genome project – Louise Jones (London) (l.j.jones@qmul.ac.uk)
- 15.00 – 15.20 Afternoon tea
- 15.20-16.20 Problem solving, a selection (15 mins each):
(1) Why are pathologists so bad at grading DCIS? Jeremy Thomas (Edinburgh)(Jeremy.Thomas@luht.scot.nhs.uk)
(2) Spindled cell, myoepithelial and epithelial/myoepithelial lesions - Zsolt Hodi (Nottingham) (zsolt.hodi@nuh.nhs.uk)
(3) Is it a fibroadenoma or benign phyllodes tumour? – Andrew Lee (Nottingham) (andrew.lee@nuh.nhs.uk)
(4) Immunohistochemistry for problem solving (and causing problems) – Cecily Quinn (Dublin) (C.Quinn@st-vincents.ie)
- 16.20-17.00 Ask the experts: panel Q & A session (Caterina, Sunil, Ian, Cecily, Colin; mediated by Sarah and Jeremy)

Saturday 25th November 09.00-12.00

09.00-12.00 SLIDE SEMINAR

For further details and registration go to www.bdiap.org

SLIDE SEMINAR

x 2 cases each participant (approx. 10 minutes per case):

- Elena Provenzano
- Cecily Quinn
- Caterina Marchio
- Colin Purdie
- Sunil Badve
- Zsolt Hodi
- Andrew Lee